Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- DTI's Analytic Enhancements Group is looking for highly motivated analysts with experience in identities intelligence and Homeland analysis. The successful candidate will be responsible for analyzing data related to known or suspected terrorists found within the Center's Terrorist Identities Datamart Environment, and drafting a variety of complex, identity- and network-centric analytic products. The analyst must have strong research, writing, and analytic skills and a strong desire to produce both current and long-term intelligence analysis. The analyst also must be able to multi-task effectively and excel at Community collaboration. Foreign and domestic TDY opportunities are available. In this role you will:
- Plan, research, develop, and communicate in-depth political, counterterrorism or identities intelligence-related analyses for senior policymakers and key components in the Intelligence Community (IC), law enforcement, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI).
- Plan, promote, and lead the production of a broad range of finished intelligence products in support of United States foreign policy and national security interests.
- Plan, prepare, and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant identity- and network-centric intelligence issues.
- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate, and use these relationships to share information of interest; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on broad or more strategic subject areas.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge of terrorist identities intelligence analyses, processes and procedures.
